Record 6,408 Favors Demos

While a record 6408 Milam vote favored Hubert Humphrey, Richard Nixon's election as President of the United States was assured Wednesday as final tabulations came in from Texas carried by Humphrey, and Illinois.

With some votes still out late Wednesday, Humphrey was leading in the popular vote, however Nixon had won the election with electoral votes. The late figure was Humphrey, 29,525,016 with 172 electoral votes; Nixon, 29,519,410 with 286 electoral votes; Wallace, 9,174,925 with 45 electoral votes. Nixon led in 29 states, Humphrey in eleven states and the District of Columbia, and Wallace carried five states.

Democratic candidate Humphrey carried Texas, leading a ticket that elected Preston Smith as Governor, Ben Barnes for Lt. Governor and Crawford Martin for Attorney General.

Humphrey captured 51 percent of the votes in traditionally Democratic Milam County in a presidential election that brought a record 6,408 voters to the polls. In the last presidential election 5,739 voted in Milam County, breaking all previous records.

Republican candidate Richard Nixon received 25 percent of the vote with 1,614 giving him a slight lead in Milam County over third running George Wallace who won 1,525 votes for 24 percent.

County Clerk Wayne Wieser and his staff worked through the night, tabulating regular and absentee returns from Milam County boxes, getting a final count at 6 a.m.

Humphrey carried 26 boxes in Milam County and tied in one. Wallace carried four boxes, tieing in two and Nixon carried one box in Rockdale, Ben Arnold and tied with Wallace at Salty.

CITY AWARDS EXTENSION BID; CLARK NAMED

Mayor E. A. Perrin said Wednesday the City Council had pending final award of a bid for the sewer and water extension to North Cameron from firms in Killeen and Bryan.

He reported the low bidder, Sub-Surface Company, of Fort Worth, had withdrawn a bid of $103,829.40 "on the basis of making an error in figuring the bid."

Walter Albritton, consulting engineer on the project, was to make final award after "certain agreements" are made by telephone with B&W Construction Co, of Bryan, and Wilkerson Welding Co., of Killeen, the next low bidders.

B&W bid $62,908.43 on the water extension line while Wilkerson Welding bid $48,888.00 on the sewer extension.

The Council also appointed R. W. Clark, a Cameron feed center manager, as successor to Councilman John Hays, who died last week.

Clark formerly managed the Cameron office of Bryan Production Credit Association and has managed Milam Grain Co. in recent years. He is a member of Cameron Noon Lions Club and First Methodist Church.

He will fill the unexpired term of Hays which runs to April, 1969.

The Council also authorized acceptance of air park funds from Texas Aeronautical Commission and named Councilman R. W. Wells to represent the Council on expansions of Cameron Airpark parking aprons with the funds. City will do the work.

Mayor Perrin also said the committee working on a study of city limit extension would be reporting within the next two to four weeks.

United Fund Drive At 80% Of Goal

United Fund had reached 80 percent of the $8,400 goal by mid-week with $6,652.53 reported.

Drive Chairman Forrest Sapp said a number of pledge cards were still out and hoped that by the weekend these would be completed and returned.

"We raised our goal $800 this year to include additional agencies and we feel confident that the people of Cameron will help us reach the top when the final report come in," Sapp said.

Throw away the shears! The laser beam is here....

A Dallas freeway was dedicated this week and the traditional ribbon cutting had a "new light."

The dignitary in charge of snipping the ribbon pressed a button, and an invisible light parted the ceremonial ribbon.

109-109-109

The laser beam, most mysterious to me, seems to cut other things. Scientists can hype up its intensity and penetrate steel with it.

Surgeons can operate with it at various controlled intensities.

Astronauts can talk through it, as they did on flights during the past year or so. Seems they focus their particular laser device on a station on earth as they pass over.

Then, they projected, by this mysterious means, conversation to earth and received transmissions.

109-109-109

They, that great, amorphous multitude, say the laser can cut through rock, concrete, diamond, people, anything.

The ribbon is easy. Can't help but wonder how they patched the gash in the concrete when the beam went through.

If there is any worse collector for drives than me, 109 dares anyone to name one. It is a good time to remind other laggards like me that United Fund needs the pledge cards or cash to complete the annual drive to help various agencies, including Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army and Cameron Teen Club.

Just think, in another year there won't be as nearly as many drives because United Fund works for five. And a lot of other good causes by then will have become history.

Federal Assistance Grant Awarded For CountyFoodProgram

Milam County has been granted $12,324.84 from the federal government to pay part of the cost of the county Surplus Food Program.

The grant is from the USDA's Program Plan for Financial Assistance to Counties.

County Judge O. B. Harden said the Surplus Food Program had been costing the county from $16,000 to $18,000 a year. He said a total of 2,168 people in Milam County receive surplus foods from the county distribution center in Cameron.

The federal grant which was effective November 1, includes: salaries for two employees, $3,600 annually plus $316.80 annually in FICA taxes; 180 hours of extra labor per month at $1.60 an hour (a salary total of $3,456 annually with $152.04 FICA taxes); $1,200 yearly for transportation of surplus foods from the government warehouse in Waco.

BANK DEPOSITS SHOW INCREASE OVER 1967 CALL

Deposits in all Milam County banks, with the exception of Thorndale State Bank, showed an increase over the same reporting period last year following a trend that carried throughout the state. Total deposits in Cameron banks were up $1,480,500.90.

The increase was attributed in part to a slightly later reporting time that came after crops were harvested.

Citizens National Bank was up $1,157,947.54 with a total deposit of $15,251,783.01; First National Bank, up $322,553.36 with a total deposit of $7,663,546.18; Rockdale State Bank up $1,170,023.19 with a total deposit of $8,835,216.63; Buckholts State Bank up $207574,-.05 with a total deposit of $1,666,-389.23.

Local Candidates Win Unopposed

Veteran Democratic Congressman, W. R. Poage, polled 4,762 votes against his only opponent Laurel N. Dunn who received 190 votes running as an independent. Poage had a clear victory, with over 90 percent of the vote, in the 11th Congressional District to return him to the House where he is chairman of the Agriculture Committee.

A total of 6408 voters cast ballots in the election Tuesday in Milam County.

Voting for uncontested candidates for local offices, all Democratic nominees, went:

Light bulb salesmen will invade the Cameron residential sections Tuesday, November 12 with a new twist to their sales speech. Instead of 'I'm working my way through college', these salesmen will be working a Cameron student's way through college.

The light bulb sale is an annual project of the Cameron Lions Club. Proceeds are used for the Lions Scholarship Fund that helps deserving students attend college or technical school after high school.

William Watkins, chairman of the sale, asked those wanting to buy light bulbs to leave their house lights on from 5 to 8 p.m., Nov. 12.

Yoe To Test Strong G-town

The Cameron Yoemen 8 p.m. Friday will host a strong Georgetown Eagles club which is leading District 19AA with a 3-0 record.

Coach Hal Stanislaw regards Georgetown's kicking game as "tremendous" and a key factor in the Eagles 7-1 record coming into Yoe Field.

He reports workouts in the Yoeman camp this week as good, the only injured on the roster being end John Hosch and Butch Bryan, who lost two teeth last Friday in the Caldwell game.

Tod Walker is the Eagles' top kicker and equally "sensational" with another Georgetown running back on offense. Walker is leading 19AA in kicking while his running mate Tim Davis racked up 247 yards rushing against Round Rock, pre-season favorite to win the district.

Georgetown has a backfield averaging 152 pounds and a line averaging 181 pounds, scoring 199 points to 70 for their opponents. Georgetown defeated Round Rock, 26-8.

Cameron's lineup will be about the same as last week. Hosch may be sidelined again Friday night.

Linemen for the Eagles are: Kenny Holcomb, Bill Studwe, Harland Holloway, Ben Munoz, Sam Kurio, Mario Valdez and Larry Crabb.

The Yoemen now have a 1-1-1 record in 19AA, holding third position in the six-team league. Hearne and Elgin have 1-2 records while Caldwell is 0-2-1 thus far.

Stanislaw will send his improving Yoemen against a team this Friday which is a 'veteran ballclub, backfield break-away speed and a touch defense."

Cameron's starting lineup will probably be:

QB	Brashear
WB	Steamer
TB	McLerran
FB	Schigut or Whitley
E	J. Richardson or Dennis Crouch
T	Fisher
C	Cavanaugh
G	Mueck
T	R. Richardson
E	Tom Terrell or Greg Williams

Yoe Defense Strong In 0-0 Tie With Caldwell Hornets

The Yoe defense again dominated the field in Caldwell Friday night, but Cameron's offensive squad was unable to move the ball past the double stripe and the game ended 0-0.

Caldwell, battling for a victory on their home field, was held to only two first downs in the first three quarters and moved past the midfield stripe only once.

In the final quarter the Hornets ran 27 offensive plays to be thrown for a loss in the last two minutes by three big Yoe defensive plays.

Tom Jones emerged as an outstanding defensive safety along with tackle Ronnie Richardson, guard John Eisfeldt, middle guard John Mayer and linebacker John Urban.

ANDERSON CARRIES

Cameron's Bert Anderson moved the Yoemen to the Caldwell 8 on a series of carries in the third quarter, but an attempted field goal failed and the Yoemen were unable to mount another drive.

Anderson led the Cameron rushers with 52 yards in 18 carries.

Punts by both teams started the game. Cameron took over after 6 minutes of play on their own 18. Three plays later Ken McLerran made a 53-yard quick kick to the Hornets' 26.

Caldwell was held for yards and punted to the Cameron 31. Wingback Johnny Steamer returned the ball to the Yoe 38, then to the 30 where Yoemen were forced to punt.

Caldwell took over on their 20 and moved to the 27 where the Hornets' Jewel Dearman fumbled and John Urban recovered. Ten minutes remained in the first half, but Cameron was unable to move the ball.

Strong defense from both teams led to another series of punts.

A second break for the Yoemen came when Tom Jones fell on a Hornet fumble on the Caldwell 48 and hard charging Bert Anderson led the Yoemen on a series of 13 plays that moved the ball to the Caldwell 8.

With a fourth and two and 32 seconds left in the half, Michael Darilek missed on an attempted kick and the board remained scoreless.

Defensive strength dominated the third quarter that saw Butch Bryan fall from a blow in the face that cost him two teeth.

The Hornets made their first real offensive drive of the game in the fourth quarter.

43-YARD MARCH

Starting on their own 35, Caldwell moved to the Cameron 22 in 11 plays. Urban and Mayer stopped an attempted quarterback sneak for the first down. The Yoemen took possession on their own 21.

The Hornets held and Cameron was forced to punt.

Starting at their 49-yard line, Caldwell moved to the Yoe 11 where they met a determined Cameron defense.

With 1:27 left in the game and only 11 yards between the Hornets and goal, a last minute score looked likely. But three defensive plays by the Yoemen held the Hornets.

First Ronnie Richardson caught Jewel Dearman for a two-yard less, then halfback McLerran knocked down a pass intended for Caldwells' Clarence Howell. Final blow came when John Eisfeldt threw substitute quarterback Easter for a 3-yard loss.

In the final seconds quarterback Doug Smith attempted a field goal, which carried wide.

Killeen scored in the fourth quarter when Steve Franks caught a 13 yard pass from quarterback Billy Mills. The kick was no good.

With just one and a half minutes left in the game quarterback Gene York ran one yard to even the score and Billy Craft's kick put the Eagles over the top.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the staff of Scott and White hospital for their services during my stay in the hospital. Also all of my friends and relatives for the visits, cards, flowers and gifts.

Terry McNeill

To the people of the 11th Congressional District of Texas:

The people of America have expressed themselves in a great national election. Obviously there were many different viewpoints, but it has always been my purpose to work with our president, regardless of politics; for everything which seems to be in the interest of our country and I shall do so in the future as I have in the past. I believe this is what the fine people of the 11th District would want me to do.

I am deeply appreciative of the tremendous vote which I received -- better than 90 percent of the total. The people of this district have honored me I shall try to honor them. I extend my thanks and appreciation to them all.

Record Milam Vote . . . .

Milam County responded to the fascination of the 1968 general election with 6408 votes, a record for this county in recent decades.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey polled 51 percent or 3269 votes, Richard Nixon polled 25 percent or 1614 votes, edging George Wallace's 24 percent or 1525 votes.

The Vice President's Milam support came from traditional Democratic voting strength. Republican voting in the General election was likely split more by Wallace support in Milam County than was Democratic.

Central Texas carried strongly for Vice President Humphrey and the Democratic ticket, and at presstime it appeared likely that Texas would carry for Humphrey while the national had gone to Nixon in electoral votes. It was 43 percent each in the popular vote.

The 6,408 vote count demonstrated the interest roused by Wallace campaigning. This vote was 700 more than in 1964 and about 400 more than in the 1960 Kennedy - Nixon contest.

Party voting must have held however, as Wallace polled 24 percent in the county, a percentage point behind Nixon. Earlier predictions saw Central Texas going 30 percent for Wallace and as high as 50 percent in West Texas counties.

Nationally, it was the most heated contest since Theodore Roosevelt's Bull-moose party challenged the major parties in 1912. Woodrow Wilson, like Nixon destined to be a minority president, was elected in that 1912 election.

Wallace was carrying 14 percent of the vote at presstime in national tabulations, just a point off what final, pre-election polls had predicted.

But the American people demonstrated once again as they did in the Johnson landslide of 1964 and in the Kennedy election of 1960 that they vote down the middle, where Nixon moved to, before the amazing last month surge of Vice President Humphrey.

What Others Say . . .

'Don't Tread On Me'

A student in Washington was recently caught seeking to steal the Soviet Embassy's doormat. The Washington Post wittily points out that "The Russians are watching their doormats these days — as any Czech can tell you."

This is, we confess, the first time that the subject of a Russian Embassy doormat ever entered our heads. But the more we think about it, the more interesting the subject becomes.

For example, what is written on it? We question whether it would be the common word "welcome," as that would seem to commit the Russians too boldly, and everyone knows how cautious they are in such matters. On the other hand, it would be a bit too unfriendly to imprint either the English "no" or the Russian "nyet" on it. The same goes for the phrase "go away," which some mats now bear. Nor could the ambassador have his own name or initials, since you cannot fool with Russian state property that way.

We realize how supremely unimportant all this is. But it is sometimes a relief, when thinking about the Soviet Union, to dwell on such a light topic as this. Most of the time Russian studies require furrowed brows and weighty ponderings.

Bilingual Education Plan Cleared For State Action

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Texas' first bilingual education plan designed to curb the school dropout rate and provide better teaching for 500,000 children has been cleared for action.

Fifteen-member advisory committee approved a plan as drawn by the Texas Education Agency task force.

Dr. Severo Gomez, director of TEA International and Bilingual programs, said the high dropout rate among Spanish - surnamed pupils is largely due to traditional instruction methods.

New statewide plan would enable young pupils to learn their lessons in Spanish until they get thorough grounding in English.

At the same time, it seeks to teach English - speaking children to be fluent in Spanish as well.

Federal government has allocated $7.5 million for bilingual education programs, and Texas is due to get a substantial share early next year.

REGIONAL PLANNING

U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has given Gov. John Connally's office its National Award for Outstanding Contributions to Inter-governmental Relations.

HUD Secretary Robert C. Weaver commended Connally, saying his regional planning programs are "indicative of how initiative, cooperation and sound program execution can improve the living environment of our citizens and meet the challenge of urban growth."

Connally released a directory of councils of governments and regional planning commissions, revealing that assistance by the state for regional planning in the last fiscal year was in excess of $1.7 million to voluntary associations of local governments which serve three-fourths of the state's population.

Currently, there are 20 active COGs in the state, and they cover 101 counties, 277 cities, 72 school districts and 51 special districts.

LIQUOR IMPORTATION

Texas Liquor Control Board is launching a new program of public information, figuring that if the average citizen is well informed, he'll stay out of trouble more.

One new area is educating persons heading for Mexico. This will be in the form of letters handed out at all likely spots, telling the visitor that, when he returns, he can bring back only one quart of liquor every 30 days, and Texas law requires a tax of 42 cents per quart.

Emphasized will be the state law against importation or even possession of any liquor container of less than one-half pint. This prohibits the mini-bottles which many tourists try to bring back as souvenirs.

NEW BOTTLE CLUB PLAN

Liquor Control Board staff has drawn another new set of rules for conducting private bottle club business which soon will be subjected to public hearing.

While rules of last February sought to tighten guest card distribution and eliminate cash sales of mixed drinks, this latest revision is not so strict. It does not deal with controversial guest card and cash sale issues which are still under court challenge.

Rules would require a minimum of 25 members to form a club and provide that new members be approved by a membership committee.

COURTS SPEAK

In a key labor case, Texas Supreme Court reversed the Beaumont Court of Civil Appeals and dissolved a temporary injunction which had halted picketing by the millwrights' union at Owens - Illinois' plant in Orange.

High Court denied a rehearing sought by a Waco man who unsuccessfully filed a defamation case when Sears, Roebuck posted his name on a hot check list.

In line with the U. S. Supreme Court Witherspoon decision prohibiting automatic exclusion from capital case juries of those who object to the death penalty, Court of Criminal Appeals reversed two Texas death penalty cases and affirmed two others.

Conviction of an Abilene man for violating the state securities act was reversed by Court of Criminal Appeals which earlier had upheld the trial court finding.

POLICE TRAINING PUSH ON

War on crime efforts is proceeding on many fronts. Many center around improvement of police training.

Sam Houston State College at Huntsville is pushing for recognition as the site of a statewide police academy.

Unless a statewide academy is created, says Sam Houston College President A. B. Templeton, 30 to 40 local academies soon will be started with federal funds. He proposes to build facilities between Sam Houston and the penitentiary at Huntsville with convict labor and materials produced at the prison at a cost of about $2 million. Federal government would be expected to pay half that cost.

BAIL BOND REFORM

State Bar of Texas and the State Junior Bar will ask the Legislature in January to change the state's system of making bonds for release while persons accused of crimes are awaiting trial.

Idea behind the new plan is to let judges release people, when possible, without making bond at all. But when the judge feels a bond necessary, the prisoner could deposit up to 10 percent of the bond himself.

As it is now, the accused generally has to pay the 10 percent to a professional bondsman, and the money is a fee for services rendered and is not returned. In the proposed system, the man would get his deposit back when he showed up in court.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT UP

Enrollment in Texas' senior colleges and universities has grown by more than 88,000 students — 47 percent — since 1963, the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, reports.

Almost 274,000 students enrolled this fall, compared to about 135,000 in 1963. An increase of 58 percent was recorded by the 22 public senior institutions, and private schools numbering 37 grew by 20 percent.

No public senior institution has declined in enrollment.

APPOINTMENTS

Liquor Control Board named O. N. (Newt) Humphreys Jr. its full fledged administrator. Humphreys ex-Dept. of Public Safety investigations chief, has been serving as acting administrator since last March following the resignation of Coke Stevenson Jr.

Gov. Connally appointed R. B. McGowen Jr. of Pecos to the Pecos River Compact Commission, succeeding the late J. C. Wilson of Pecos.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

I was out here on this Johnson grass farm trying to recover from the election--a neighbor asked me if I thought the next President will have all the answers and I told him I don't know, personally I don't even know what most of the qustions are --and to get my mind cleared I picked up a newspaper I'd been saving and got over to the inside pages away from the campaigns and ran into an article that certainly got my mind off of politics.

According to it, a college professor told the National Academy of Science that teaching as it's done today will soon be out of style, that computers will be used to teach children, saying that a computer for example can "teach such a basic skill as mathematics in one - tenth the time and at half the cost now required." He went on to say that "computers will monitor each student's progress minute by minute, correcting mistakes immediately. It'll flash right or wrong to each answer as it is given."

I have been thinking this over and have concluded the professor hasn't gone far enough. Instead of substituting computers for teachers, why not go one step further and substitute computers for students.

If you've got a computer that knows all the answers to all the problems of math and can give them to you in one one- thousandth of a split second, and on top of that doesn't wear out shoes or need braces on its teeth or listen to phonograph records or tie up the telephone, haven't you got what you're looking for? What's the point in running the same stuff through some kid's mind?

At his best, the kid can get up to 12 times 12, whether taught by man or machine, but how many can tell you what's 12 times 13? Why not skip teaching kids math and teach them how to oil a computer, change its fuses, and punch the right buttons? Teach them hoy to protect the passer, give them a computer for graduation, and they're on their way.

Here's a machine they claim knows all the math there is, so let's leave it in charge in that field and work on one that can do the same with history, literature, science, etc.

By the way, is 12 times 12 154 or 164? I never could remem-

Assault Sentence Affirmed By Court

The Court of Criminal Appeals has upheld the conviction of Johnny Lee Bell who was sentenced to two years for assault with intent to murder.

Bell was tried October 11, 1967 before a jury in District Court of Milam County. He was found guilty of assaulting Charlie Gipson of San Antonio at Clark's Tavern, Rockdale, on June 18, 1967. The court opinion was written by Judge John F. Onion, Jr.

County Attorney John B. Henderson, Jr. said Bell's attorney could file a motion for rehearing and if this was overruled Bell would be transferred to Huntsville.

A referendum by peanut growers on marketing quotas for the 1969, 1970 and 1971 crops will be held Dec. 2-6. For the first time in a peanut referendum, mail balloting will be used. Dates are the same as for the two cotton referendums.

The national peanut marketing quota is 1,549,625 tons and the national allotment is 1,610,000 acres for the 1969 crop.

At least two-thirds of growers voting in the referendum must approve quotas if they are to be made effective. Whether or not quotas are approved, the 1969 - crop peanut acreage allotments will remain in effect as a means of determining eligibility for price support.

Quotas will be in effect in each of the three years if at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum favor them. Growers who comply with their allotments will be eligible for price support at a rate to be announced later. Non-complying farms will receive no price support, and marketing penalties will apply to any 'excess' peanuts produced.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose, quotas and penalties will not be in effect for 1969-crop peanuts. Price support available to growers who comply with their acreage allotments will drop to 50 percent of parity, and another referendum will be held in 1969 to determine if marketing quotas will be in effect the following three years.

It is required by law to announce a national marketing quota and a national acreage allotment each year, as well as provide for growers' referendums on marketing quotas at least once every three years.

The marketing quota must be established at the higher of either the average quantity of peanuts harvested for nuts during the five years immediately preceding the year in which the quota is proclaimed, adjusted for current trends and prospective demand conditions, or that quantity sufficient to provide a national acreage allotment of 1,610,000 acres.

In determining the marketing quota for the 1969 peanut crop, 1,925 pounds per acre were arrived at as a normal yield. This yield, multiplied by the minimum in the 1969 national peanut marnational acreage allotment, result keting quota.

Pecan Growers Invited To Show

By J. D. Moore

Milam County pecan growers are urged to participate in the annual Pecan and Food Show to be held at Rockdale November 16.

An entry should consist of a quart of pecans with the growers name, address and the variety if known, according to M. S. Pugh, chairman of the show. For convenience the pecans should be placed in a plastic bag and left with Mr. Pugh, 613 W. Cameron St., Rockdale or at the Extension office in Cameron, or the Anderle Lumber Co., Cameron. Deadline for entries will be Friday, Nov. 15.

Purpose of the show is to learn more about pecan varieties by comparing their shelling percentage, kernel characteristics and appearance of the exhibits.

New pecan varieties are outperforming the standard varieties in many of the county shows. However, the county agent's Success variety out-yielded all other varieties this year including the new varieties.

Judges for the show will be Dr. Benton Storey and Jack Norton, both from A&M horticulture dept.

MovieRatingPlan Gains Acceptance

Virtually all Texas theatre owners have agreed to apply the new voluntary movie rating system devised by the Motion Picture Association of America to provide a system of guidance as to the suitability of films for young audiences.

The plan has captured the interest of the public because it marks the first all-out effort nationally to restrict attendance by persons under 16 years of age to see certain films.

For many years a majority of the Texas theatres have followed a voluntary classification plan using the audience recommendations of the Texas Motion Picture Board of Review, a 30 year old voluntary rating group.

Since it will take three to six months to play off all the pictures released prior to November 1, Texas theatremen plan to use both the TMPBR and the new MPAA ratings until older releases are out of play date at which time the MPAA plan will be utilized exclusively.

Sources from the two state theatre associations revealed that under both classification services, persons under 16 will not be admitted to certain films unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian and under one category of the MPAA plan an underage youngster will not be admitted under any circumstance.
